NCBTMB ANNOUNCES LAUREN DZIUBAN AS ETHICS AND DISCIPLINE MANAGER

Dziuban Brings 10 Years of Corporate Governance and Ethics Experience

OAKBROOK TERRACE, Illinois (January 24, 2008) – The National Certification Board for Therapeutic Massage & Bodywork (NCBTMB) is pleased to announce the selection of Lauren Dziuban as its new Ethics and Discipline Manager.

In her new position, Dziuban will report to Laura Culver Edgar, NCBTMB COO. Dziuban will be responsible for managing NCBTMB's ethics, compliance and discipline processes. She will also act as a liaison for NCBTMB's ethics and standards committee and NCBTMB's legal counsel.

Dziuban has worked for banking, loan and legal organizations in a number of management capacities. Most recently, she was a Legal Operations Manager for the Federal Home Loan Bank of Pittsburgh.

Dziuban has a BA in political science and a minor in communications from American University in Washington DC, where she also participated in the School of Public Affairs' leadership program. She is an active member of the Society of Corporate Compliance and Ethics and the Society of Corporate Secretaries and Governance Professionals.

"I look forward to the opportunity of utilizing my experience in corporate and business compliance, particularly pertaining to such critical issues as ethics, discipline and the consistency of processes in the rapidly expanding profession of massage therapy and bodywork," stated Dziuban. "I am excited about this challenge and look forward to working with our staff to continue to make NCBTMB the most responsive, efficient and trusted organization it can be."

"Lauren Dziuban has significant experience in operational management, communications, ethics and governance," stated Chris Laxton, NCBTMB CEO. "Her skills in developing and managing critical processes, her understanding of the importance of ethics and compliance, and her passion for process consistency across practitioners and industry governing boards make her a tremendous asset to NCBTMB."

Culver Edgar added, “Our goal at NCBTMB is to ensure our profession exemplifies the highest standard of professional ethics, compliance and discipline, and Lauren is a great addition to our team.”

ABOUT NCBTMB

The National Certification Board for Therapeutic Massage & Bodywork (NCBTMB) was established in 1992 as an independent, private, nonprofit organization fostering the highest standards of ethical and professional practice in the delivery of therapeutic massage and bodywork through a recognized credentialing program. NCBTMB examinations are currently utilized or recognized in statute or rule by 32 states plus the District of Columbia. There are currently more than 88,000 professionals with NCBTMB certification. NCBTMB has been accredited by the National Commission for Certifying Agencies (NCCA) since 1993.
